

Denial/Refund policy as of January 1, 2023

If you receive a denial for your firearm purchase or transfer from the FBI NICS Center you will be given documentation as required from the NICS via our staff in order to appeal the decision. Within the following parameters your firearm will be held.

We will hold your firearm (s) for 30 days while your appeal is in process with no extra charge.

Starting with day 31 there will be a storage fee added of $25 for each month we have to store your firearm (s) up to day 90.

Starting with day 91 there will be a storage fee added of $50 for each month we have to store your firearm (s) up to 180 days.

After we have held your firearm for 6 months, we will send you notification that unless there is a resolve within ten (10) days of the date of the letter your firearm (s) will be considered abandoned and subsequently sold.

There will be no further notification or refund payments or payments for the value of the firearm (s) will be given to you.

Please keep in mind you also have the opportunity to send the firearm back to the vendor you bought it from. We will be happy to facilitate that shipment for you with a cost of $25 + whatever the shipping costs are, in addition to any other fees you may have incurred during the time the firearm is here at our shop.

If you purchased the firearm through us and you are denied or change your mind on the purchase, you have the opportunity for a refund only within the first ten (10) days from the date of purchase.

Thank you for your understanding,

DJ's Management.
